

Join Us

On the Bruce Peninsula

Celebrate the migration of the Monarch Butterfly

Friday August 26 to Sunday August 28 from 9am til 6pm
Butterfly tagging at Alvar Bay (681 Cape Hurd Road)

Saturday August 27 at the Park Visitor Centre

6:00 pm Reception with Escarpment Biosphere Conservancy

7:30 pm Presentation: Land Conservation in Southern Ontario

7:45 pm Four Wings and a Prayer - award winning NFB film on the Monarch's migration to Mexico

9:00 pm Concert: Jarmo Jalava

Sunday August 28 at Alvar Bay
(681 Cape Hurd Road)

10:00 am Join acclaimed biologist Jarmo Jalava for a nature walk on the alvar and its rare plants

Escarpment Biosphere Conservancy is one of Ontario's charitable land trusts. EBC has created 22 nature reserves north of Stokes Bay protecting 2,448 acres with many rare and endangered species. Two of these reserves border the national park. Contact: Bob Barnett, executive Director 888-815-9575, rbarnett@escarpment.ca, www.escarpment.ca

